After Winning, the Doctor Caused His Trophy to Be Filled with Wine.

SECOND MONEY WAS DIVIDED.

Messrs, Edgar Gibbs Murphy, Fred Hoey, Phil Daly, Jr., and Dr. Gagnon Matched for Next Wednesday.

By Charles F. Mathison, Twenty-five times Dr. George S. Gagnon, the stout Chicagoan, walked to the twentyfive-yard mark at the Elkwood Park traps yesterday afternoon, and twenty-three time a bird fell dead.

One bird, the third, fell dead out of bounds, and one other, the twenty-second, was missed cleanly. Of the twenty-three sills, fourteen birds were grassed with one parrel, and nine got the second charge.

The Doctor thus captured the Bleiman

Cup, a handsome piece of sliverware that will hold a gallon of any specified liquid. When his opponents and the spectators had sufficiently congratulated the victor, had sufficiently congratulated the victor, he caused the trophy to be filled with the fulce of the grape, and all those present were urged to assist in the mitigation of the vinous flood.

Dr. Gagnon shot with rare form, and while not so fastidious as Davy Crockets, who always insisted on hitting a squirrein the eye, yet the rozmer felt surgrised and pained when he found it necessary to use the second barres. Gagnon had an eye like an eagle, a nerve of adamant, and an air of serene composure that resisted the badinage of Messis, Murphy and Hoey. Conched By Dr. Brewer,

Gagnon also appeared with a coach in the person of the noted marksman, Capperson of the noted marksman, CapJohn S. Brewer, who is introducing

Hooy was also not up to form, and after losing six birds out of twesty-three, three dying out of bounds, he withfree. The remaining five competitors made a close and exciting race, and all tied at twenty-one kills. In the shoot-off at five hirds, Rallard, Daly and Welch tied again and divided second and third money.

In the original shoot Finletter lost his and the betting was then lo to? In Murphy and Gagnon killed six straight each, and the betting was then lo to? In Murphy's favor.

Murphy's ninth was a low, bard driver, that skimmed the boundary tike a hawk, pursued by a shower of shot.

Bettors Liked the Doctor.

After this the betting shifted to the Doctor's favor.

Daly had the misfortune to lose his fought and fifth birds dead out of bounds or he would have given the Doctor's hard.

Murphy's twenty-second was a fine drop of a low driver with the second barrel close to the boundary. Nearly every competitor made one or more shots that called forth applause from the large crowd that filled the handsome enclosure. In addition to the cup, Dr. Gagnon won $1,400. The score follows:

Wefers Breaks Another World's Record.

ORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 20.—In the Memorial Hospital aethletic games at the Worcester Oval this afternoon, B. J. Wefers, of the New York Athletic Club, broke the 120 yards worlds running record by 2-5 seconds. His time was 11 2-5 seconds. The best previous time was 11 4-5 seconds. Wefers has been after the 120 yards record for some time past. He equalled the world's record of 11 4.5 seconds in 1896, doing the trick at Travers Island the world's record of 11 4.5 seconds in 1896, doing the trick at Travers Island on September 26. He was the first American amateur sprinter to make those figures, which were created by W. P. Phillips at London, England, March 25, 1882. C. A. Bradley, the English sprinter, got on even terms with the record on June 17, 1893, and repeated on April 28, 1894. A. R. Downer, the Scotch flyer, duplicated the feat May 11, 1895. It remained for the greatest of America's amateur runners to set a new mark, and he has put the figures where they will be difficult to reach for some time to come. Wefer's performance is absolute proof that he has regained the form which was lacking at the Intercollegiate meet, and the prospects of some more record smashing at Manhattan Field, August 28.

SMITTEN HIP AND THIGH. Brooklyn Knocked Donohue Out of the Box and Made a Few Runs Off Suthoff.

"Bridget" Donohue essayed to pitch for St. Louis yesterday afternoon. After four singles, four two-baggers and seven earned runs had been secured at his expense in the first inning, the uncharitable bleachers asked him whether he mought Von der Ahe would take $4,000 for his release. There is a rumor to the effect that three Abe would take $4,000 for his release. There is a rumor to the effect that three times the St. Louis president has been tempted with that sum and that three times he has turned his back and has refused to be parted from Bridget.

When the second inning began Mr. Suthoff, heretofore of Paducan, Ky., went into the box, and the Brooklyn Fourth of July demonstration subsided. Mr. Suthoff did well, considering his entire ignorance of the batters whom he faced.

Dunn took it comparatively easy after Brooklyn had secured its big lead and the umpire dwelt more or less in peace.

"Bud" Lally was supplanted in St. Louis's left field by a gentleman named Haussman. Score:
